

HOTEL PROFILE:

Three Cities Management was formed in 1988 as a hospitality group offering specialized services in the tourism industry. Today the Group manages and markets over 32 quality tourism and leisure properties and has a strong network of sales and marketing specialists working out of Johannesburg, Durban, Cape Town, United Kingdom and Germany.

Its distinctively unique portfolio of properties includes: City Hotels, Resorts, Exceptional Safaris and Exceptional Collection as well as three campuses of The International Hotel School (IHS) and the largest Marine Theme Park in Africa – uShaka Marine World in Durban. Brand flexibility is one of the Group's hallmarks and allows each hotel to own and maintain its singular identity whilst being sold to the travel trade under the Three Cities Group brand. Each property has its own individual personality and the hotels are combined through a common bond of service excellence of international standard with quality appointed accommodation and facilities appropriate to each of the properties marketed.

Three Cities Management continues to grow from strength to strength. Its unique portfolio of properties offers a diverse range of Africa's finest hotels, resorts and game lodges situated in the major tourist and business centres of Southern Africa.

The Thaba Ya Batswana Eco Hotel and Spa captures the spirit of the African renaissance. The name means “Mountain of the Tswana People” and is due to the discovery of the Tswana settlement ruins that date back between 300 to 600 years. Visitors can see the historic remnants of these ruins from the many hiking paths and trails. Situated in the Klipriviersberg Nature Reserve, which has an abundance of indigenous trees, plants, birds and wildlife. For the corporate market, Thaba Ya Batwana offers conferencing rooms that accommodate groups up to 500 people. The hotel and spa offer an idyllic setting in contemporary African style for weddings that will make your day special and unforgettable. Located in a breathtaking nature reserve, Thaba Ya Batswana, with its unique and stylish architecture and professional service-oriented hospitality, is the perfect backdrop for any function.
