COLOSSEUM HOTEL

HOTEL PROFILE:

Located adjacent to the Canal Walk Shopping Centre, and a ten minute drive from Cape Town's CBD, offering affordable four star accommodation in Cape Town, Colosseum Luxury Hotel (previously the Protea Hotel Colosseum) is owned by the Singer Group. It boasts flexible conference facilities and all suites have semi-self catering facilities. Contemporary decor with a home from home ambiance make it one of Cape Town's outstanding hotels.

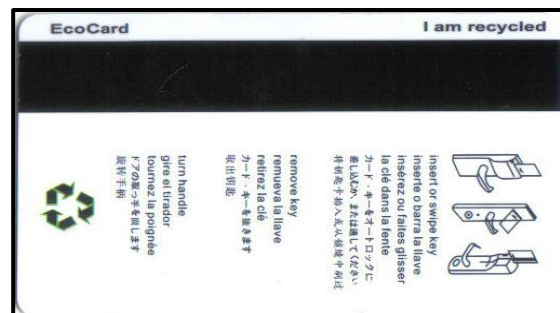

Growing steadily from a single travel agency in 1973, Singer Group today comprises a variety of interests in the tourism, hospitality, hotel and property sectors in South Africa. With year-on-year growth and an ever expanding portfolio, the Singer Group is widely regarded as one of the country's most successful businesses in the hospitality sector.

The Singer Group comprises of a highly successful retail travel agency, an online travel website, a conference & events- company, an in-bound tour operator, a destination management company, holiday apartments, three four-star hotels and four restaurants. Headed up by brothers, Leon and Brian Singer, the Singer Group is diversifying into new sectors that will complement existing business units - these include online ventures and international property developments.
