

HOTEL NAME:

DIAZ STRAND HOTEL

HOTEL PROFILE:

At the heart of the picturesque Garden Route, in the historically-rich and climatically-temperate town of Mossel Bay, and right at the ocean's edge, lies a celebration of opulence and splendour: the matchless Diaz Strand Hotel.

86 luxurious sea-facing rooms, each with its own balcony...nothing to obscure your matchless view of the whales at play in the sapphire Indian Ocean... satellite television and a private heated outdoor pool... cotton linen, fluffy towels and air conditioning

The Hotel, opened on 1 July 2004, is named in honour of the famed Portuguese navigator, Bartolomeu Diaz, who landed here in Mossel Bay in 1488. The Hotel is themed on the long and vivid history of the area, and with luxurious suites named after Diaz and his companions, you will feel yourself at once surrounded by the charm of heritage.
