

ABOUT RADISSON BLU:

Radisson Hotels is an international hotel company with more than 420 locations in 73 countries. The first Radisson Hotel was built in 1909 in Minneapolis, Minnesota, US. It is named after the 17th-century French explorer Pierre-Esprit Radisson. The hotel was purchased in 1962 by Curt Carlson (1914–1999) and is still owned by the Carlson estate.

The majority of Radisson-branded hotels are located in the United States. The company's headquarters, as well as the headquarters of the parent organization, Carlson, are located in a suburb of Minneapolis, Minnesota, the city where the first Radisson Hotel was built. The original Radisson Hotel, founded by heiress Edna Dickerson, was opened on December 15, 1909 at 41 South Seventh Street in Minneapolis Radisson Blu is the brand name for Radisson hotels outside the United States, including those in Europe, Africa and Asia. These are operated by Carlson Rezidor Hotel Group which Carlson is the main stakeholder. Scandinavian Airlines System (SAS) was previously a major shareholder in Rezidor Hotel Group and licensed its brand for Radisson SAS hotels. Following the withdrawal of SAS from the partnership, the name has been replaced by Radisson Blu, although the new brand is being introduced gradually across the portfolio.

Radisson Blu creates iconic buildings with individual interiors invoking an inviting, exciting ambiance and offering a holistic hospitality experience that is totally relevant to now. Radisson Blu flagship properties can be found in prime locations, including major cities, airport gateways and leisure destinations around the world.

Radisson Blu Hotels & Resorts, part of the Rezidor Hotel Group, currently operates more than 230 hotels worldwide, with another 51 projects under development. Radisson Blu is a first class full service hotel brand with key differentiators such as the 100% Guest Satisfaction Guarantee and the Yes I Can! spirit of service.

Carlson, a privately held, global hospitality and travel company, based in Minneapolis (USA), is the majority shareholder of The Rezidor Hotel Group. Together, Carlson and Rezidor have hotels in more than 90 different countries, 1,070 hotels in operation and 240 hotels under development.

The Rezidor Hotel Group is a name synonymous with creative hospitality and innovative spirit. And we, as Rezidor's business development team, are committed to further building on this legacy. Our growth strategies and unique business model make us one of the most attractive and respected partners in the industry. Our pioneering character, distinctive brands, enviable portfolio of new breed hotels and strong sense for good business help us offer innovative and balanced contract solutions. And our relationship with our does not simply end with the completion of the hotel. Moving forwards, we continuously strive to enhance the return with value adding propositions and contract adaptations.

Great brands from one of the world's fastest growing hotel companies.

The international hotel business is fiercely competitive. Success depends on developing the best, truly creative brands that both meet and exceed our guests' needs and expectations: on developing relevant, desirable hotels and products that are easy for travellers to find and buy.
